Just a few figures for you in 2007 when I last judged in Malta for The Maltese Ladies kennel association, I had thirty pugs entered this show I think there were five. Alaskan Malamutes in 2007 I had 12 this year I had one. But the boxer entrie retains the same figure as 2007, 18 dogs showed in both years. My thanks once again for inviting me and thanks to the exhibitors for there valued entries my best wishes for your future shows me and my fellow judge enjoyed your company and the chance of going over your lovely dogs once more.
